Project details

Tyresoles is the leading tyre retreading company in India and has more than 6 decades of experience in the field of retreading. Tyresoles started as a unit of Anglo-Thai Corporation and was acquired by the Sah & Sanghi Group in 1973. The Belgaum factory was established in 1984. The company has seen year-on-year sales growth of 30% for the last two years and is projecting sales growth of 50% for the next year.

Tyresoles works closely with its customers to develop new products to meet changing requirements. It has also developed specialised rubber compounds to match vehicle operating conditions in India. It has also established an ERP system in 1999 which allows it to track tyres online and give customers accurate information about their tyres.

We have delivered successfully for the following Requirements:
